MODULE 5
Aug 17, 2020; 10am - 12nn
The Tools of a Survivor-Centered, Rights-Based Approach to GBVIE Response

OBJECTIVES

- To practice designing humanitarian interventions that reflect commitment to recognize, fulfill, protect GBV survivors' rights, needs and safety aspirations
- To strengthen humanitarian workers' resolve and commitment to a survivor-centered, rights-based and community-devt approach
- Ensure that every humanitarian actor is trained in protection issues and standard codes of conduct to combat sexual abuse and exploitation is a preliminary but necessary step towards GBV prevention and mitigation.

AGENDA

Goal-setting 10 min
Principles of Protection 10 min
Shifting from Victim Blaming to Survivor-Centered 45 min
Survivor-Centered, Trauma-informed Approach 30 min
GBVIE Programming During Emergencies 20 min
Synthesis & Next Steps 5 min

WORKSHOP CULTURE

- Respect ideas and beliefs.
- Sharing is a choice.
- Uphold confidentiality.
- Be Self-aware and practice self-care.
EXERCISE 1

1. Divide into groups of 5-6 people
2. Choose one of the 2 case studies to work on
3. Discuss for 30 minutes and respond to the questions
4. Use jamboard page according to group number; organize your responses on the jamboard according to roles given: case manager, camp manager, program manager.
5. Review the jamboards of the other groups

Scenario #1

- Rose is an 18 year-old young woman who is living in an IDP camp after a typhoon affected her village and displaced her whole family. The IDP camp is being run by the local govt but the barangay officials are overwhelmed and unable to provide full services or camp security. One night, Rose wakes up in the middle of the night to use the latrine which has no locks and a man, also an IDP, sexually assaults her. No one hears the noise and comes to her aid. A month after, Rose attends an information session on GBV done at the Women-Friendly Space. As the discussion progresses, she becomes emotionally upset and discloses the rape.

- Questions:
  - How would you handle the situation?
  - What would your next steps be, if you were the:
    - CFW trainer
    - camp manager
    - program manager at the humanitarian agency?

Scenario #2

- Maritoni lives with her husband and children in an evacuation camp due to a volcanic eruption. She was able to finish college but when she married her husband, devoted her life to being a wife and a mother. Soon after her however, her husband began to beat her and she would suffer from physical injuries, like a black eye. One time, he nearly stabbed her. At the evacuation camp, some of the other women notice that Maritoni has black and blue bruises on her neck and arms during a training for Cash for Work activity.
Questions:
  ○ How would you handle the situation?
  ○ What would your next steps be, if you were the:
    ■ CFW trainer
    ■ camp manager
    ■ program manager at the humanitarian agency?

EVALUATION

Kindly provide feedback on this workshop using this workshop evaluation form.

Remember to identify the correct module and date for this workshop.

MARAMING SALAMAT!