MODULE SEVEN

Aug 24
10am – 12nn
Re-entry and Re-integration
Action Planning
Workshop Culture

We are all teachers, we are all learners
Assume best interests, ask questions to clarify
Speak up, step back
Monitor our airtime
Help name issues, help find solutions
Let’s stretch, let’s experiment!
Virtual Small Group Practices

- Take turns in answering, use the participant list to call on everyone esp those who are quiet
- Screen share the worksheet so people can see the progress of the discussion
- Help document along
- Monitor and keep time
Objectives

- To prepare a re-integration action plan that outlines the strategies, activities will apply the lessons learned onto their existing work
- Encourage participants to take bold steps in their work integrating strategies, activities that promote gender equity
Agenda

- Goal Setting 5 Minutes
- Introduction 10 minutes
- Panel 45 Minutes
- Feedback session 50 Minutes
- Evaluation 10 Minutes
Panelists

Alexandra Pura
Country Programme Manager for Gender and Inclusion, PLAN Intl

Libertad Mella
Gender Adviser - Humanitarian Support Program, Oxfam

John Ryan ‘Rai’ Buenaventura
Humanitarian Coordinator United Nations Population Fund
Assessment Tool
GROUP OF 3 - DISCUSSION

• What are the primary take-aways from the training series relevant to your current work that you think your co-workers need to hear?

• What is one S-M-A-R-T goal that you could realistically accomplish by the end of one year?

• What technical support and capacities would you need in order to implement this goal?
Moving Forward

- Join the GBV sub-cluster for continuing resources and peer support. Register here.
- Assessment or mapping services should identify assets as well as gaps.
- Have a plan - starting small is usual but a bold step can also be galvanizing.
• Advancing policy through organizational processes can be leveraged to build buy-in and support from leadership, membership and staff.
• Constructing a change team to facilitate the initial phase of introduction is key to an accountable, deliberate process.
References

https://www.gihahandbook.org/
EVALUATION

Kindly provide feedback on this workshop using this workshop evaluation form.

Remember to identify the correct module and date for this workshop.

The link to the evaluation is provided in the chat box and can also be accessed in the PDF learning guide for Module 6.